Religious Education classes

Kindergarten through Eighth grade are held in the Parish Center at the St. Jude location from 10:30-11:30am. The Confirmation Program is held at the St. Jude location in the Youth Building at the same time. If you have not yet registered your child, please call the Office of Faith Formation (803) 773-9244. October 15th is the Registration Deadline.

The Diocese of Charleston Policy on Sacramental Preparation

The expectation in the Saint Anne and Saint Jude Office of Faith Formation is that upon entering into a Sacramental program, the youth would have attended a Religious Education program for at least one full year prior (according to attendance records). Once entered into a Sacramental program, it is the expectation that the youth will attend classes and retreats faithfully and participate fully. If you know your child is going to be absent on a scheduled class day, please notify the teacher or DRE. All contact information is available on the front cover of the bulletin.

RCIA

The doors are open for all who want to know more about the life and teaching of the Catholic Church. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the process for welcoming adults into the Catholic Church, has just started. We meet Wednesdays, 7 to 9 PM, in the St. Jude Parish Center at 611 W. Oakland Ave. Please call Jackie Francis, our RCIA Coordinator, at 469-4584, if you have any questions. It is never too late!
Come and join us!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

"My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?" Today's Gospel parable is unsettling in several ways. The various images of rejection, mistreatment, and violence paint an unpleasant picture. Guests refuse to come to a feast, servants are killed, troops are dispatched. The King continues to try to fill his dinner hall, and then when someone finally does show up, the King throws him out for wearing the wrong clothes. What is going on here?

The message would have been a poignant one for his Jewish listeners. As the chosen people, they were the first to receive the "invitation" to share in the kingdom of God. But the chief priests and elders were uninterested in accepting Jesus and his authority; thus they didn't show up for the feast. But what about those who did come? Something is expected of them as well. Donning a "wedding garment" is like being properly prepared to enter God's kingdom. Just showing up isn't enough.

Here it's important to pay attention to the details. The King first calls his poorly dressed guest "friend." The approach begins with mercy and kindness. But the man gives no defense for himself, and displays no desire to change. It's as if he doesn't really care to be there at all.

The question this raises for us is whether or not we are "dressed" appropriately. We may hang around the banquet hall—going to church, professing to be Christian—but are we sincere guests of the King of kings? Do we truly accept Christ's teachings and live by them, or are we just showing up? The splendors of the invitation Christ gives us should not be taken for granted. We are called to share in a royal feast. May we all be grateful guests.

Saint Jude Adult Bible Study

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Pope Francis constantly reminds us of the wideness of God's mercy and its unconditional character. God is always patiently loving his children and opening the doors to his heart. We must, however, freely choose to accept God's invitation and join in the feast of his love. We desire many things and we have restless hearts. We often attempt to quench our desire with things that are short-lived and shallow. All of us long to be satisfied and at peace. How do we announce to the world, in ways that are convincing and without judgment, that it is really God whom we seek?
