Our Prayer Today, Our Reality Tomorrow

Almighty and ever-loving God we thank You for the many blessings You have given to us all in our parishes of St. Jude and St. Anne throughout these many years. Bless us today as we accept the challenges we face to build one united parish community. We ask you to bless all the families in our parishes. We ask that our love for you and for each other continue to grow and mature as we work to accomplish the task of building our future together. Teach us to be generous in giving so that our unified church will be a place of honor that will give glory to you forever. We ask that you unite us and lead us all to the glory of eternal happiness in heaven. Dear God may our prayer today be a reality tomorrow through the power of the Holy Spirit and the guidance of Jesus and with the blessings of our Mother Mary. AMEN

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money." This servant was scared. He didn't want to take any risks and just wanted to play everything safe. As he confesses to his master, "Out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground." And the master was not pleased. The other servants who invested the money he gave them were richly rewarded for their efforts to produce more. But this servant was punished for letting his fear rule the day.

What factors are keeping us from making a return on God's investment in us? He has given us all life, and each of us also has a special collection of "talents" to make use of. We have certain gifts, skills, experiences, resources, and abilities that (though we may not often think about it) come from God. He calls us to make the most of these things, not just to take them for granted or bury them in the ground, so to speak. Our gifts are meant not just for our own enjoyment, but to help others, to spread truth and goodness and beauty to the world around us.

Sometimes, however, we fail to really capitalize on our potential. Laziness, distraction, or self-pity can get in the way if we are unwilling to put in the hard work to improve our natural gifts, if we allow ourselves to zone out with entertainment or frivolous pastimes instead of making good use of the time entrusted to us, or if we wallow in negativity by focusing on what we DON'T have instead of embracing what we do.

Each moment is a gift from God. May we seize every opportunity to multiply the investment God has made in us so that we may be worthy to hear God tell us, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA - RECONOCER A DIOS EN LOS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS (Everyday Stewardship) Recuerdo que una vez vi un programa de televisión en el que mostró una escuela secundaria desarraigar una cápsula de tiempo que había enterrado veinticinco años atrás. Lo habían enterrado con el fin de mostrarles a los demás las tendencias de los tiempos y cómo era la vida estudiantil en ese entonces. Era divertido y todos se rieron al ver el estilo, las fotos y la falta de tecnología de ese tiempo. Me pregunto cómo los estudiantes pensaban que habían crecido en esos veinticinco años. ¿Cuántos de ellos realizaron sus sueños? ¿Encontraron su propósito? ¿Usaron los dones que Dios les regaló para hacer una diferencia en el mundo?

Dios nos ha dado a todos nosotros regalos que él quiere que cultivemos y se lo ofrezcamos a él y a los de nuestro alrededor para su gloria. Conforme pasa el tiempo, espero que vayamos tomando en serio nuestros regalos de la corresponsabilidad. Pero a veces, por miedo, un mal entendimiento, o hasta la apatía, hemos escondido nuestros dones y nos los hemos quedado con egoísmo. Esta no es forma de honrar a Dios y no es en realidad un camino a la satisfacción de la vida. Si tenemos algo enterrado en el patio de atrás, haríamos bien si lo sacamos, lo limpiamos y comenzamos a construir sobre ello. Como una cápsula del tiempo, esas cosas no se quedan enterradas para siempre. Un día, el dador del regalo le preguntará qué ha hecho con el regalo. Cuando llegue ese día, oro que usted no tenga que tomar una pala para desenterrarlo. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
