LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
John the Baptist came to testify to the light, who is Jesus Christ. Like John, we are called to testify to that same Light. We do so by living lives of faith and bringing the joy of the Gospel to everyone we meet. We are people of joy who rejoice at his birth and eagerly await his coming again. We share that joy by tending to the needs of the poor, helping those who are broken, and witnessing to the freedom that a life in God brings. May we take our task of being joyful witnesses to the good news seriously as the celebration of Christ's birth fast approaches.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

As Christians, we are called to a life of prayer. This is not just during seasons like Advent, but all year long. When we talk about being prayerful everyday stewards, we are speaking about cultivating an awareness of God being with us at all times. Each day we begin by offering God the entirety of our day. Each night we rest in him and hope that the hours that passed gave him glory.

During this busy time of Advent, it is hard to cultivate this life of prayer, but without it we can too easily lose sight of the reason for the season. It is during this time of year we need to heed the words of St Paul more than ever when he wrote to the Thessalonians, "Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing." This is how we will be able to avoid the pitfalls of consumerism and secularism and keep our eyes fixed on Jesus.

Bring Jesus with you into the office Christmas party. Take him with you shopping for gifts in the department store. Be aware of him when you sit down to watch television specials you have seen every year of your life. Give him all your time and let his presence fill your every moment. By striving to be connecting with Jesus at all times, you will bear greater fruit and the joy you experience will be much greater than you could imagine. You might even spend fewer dollars and spend more time with those you love, particularly the One who loves you the most, the Incarnation himself.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?-

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: On many Sundays, especially during Advent and Lent, we hear a reading from one of the prophets. What is significant about them for us? Didn't Jesus fulfill all their predictions?

Answer: Lent and Advent are the times of the church year when the prophetic word forms an important part of the liturgical season. Isaiah, Jeremiah, Baruch, and Zephaniah are just some of the prophets who offer powerful and essential lessons for Christians of any era. Prophets do not predict the future—they are very much concerned about the present, calling Israel to follow once again the word of God. The prophets witness to a life of faith. In the midst of an intense relationship with God, the prophets are very aware of their unworthiness to embrace this call from God, and struggle to accept the mission God entrusts to them.

The prophets speak on behalf of God. Each testifies that the word spoken is not from them, but from God. This lands them in trouble, at times, with their audience. Jeremiah, for example, felt betrayed by God as the prophetic message was delivered. People did not like the message because of their sin-filled lives and their displeasure was taken out on the prophet. While tempted at times to throw in the towel, the prophets remained true to the life of faith and persevered in the proclamation of God's word. In modeling these virtues and calling us to greater fidelity, the prophets offer an example and message that are still important to us today.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

December 17, 2017 3rd Sunday of Advent

"There is one ... coming after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie." Untying sandal straps was no prestigious job. In the days of John the Baptist, those straps would have been especially unpleasant to deal with. Besides the usual odors that accompany sockless leather footwear, there would have been the grime and dirt from the sandy roads and paths that swirled around the people who went everywhere on foot. Taking off someone's shoes upon their arrival was the task of the lowly servants. So when John says he's unworthy of doing this task for the "one who is coming after me," he is putting himself in a very humble position. And rightly so. John realizes that the Christ--the Anointed One, the Messiah--is so far above him, so far above any of us, that we are truly unworthy of him. Indeed, the Son of God is not just the greatest of men; he is God-made-man and in his presence we most appropriately should bow in humble homage. Yet this God chose to stoop down to our human level and walk among us. He chose to get his sandals dirty. And still today he chooses to allow us to encounter him as a friend and companion. But as John reminds us by his example, this encounter with the Lord is not the result of our own merits or accomplishments. We are sinners who stand in need of Christ's help. But thanks be to God, he is always willing to extend this help to us. As St. Paul says in today's epistle, "May the God of peace make you perfectly holy." Indeed it is God who does the perfecting, not us by our own power. So let us approach the Lord this Advent season with a spirit of hopeful humility, trusting that God alone can make us worthy of welcoming his Son.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

17 de diciembre de 2017 3er Domingo de Adviento

Se acerca ya el Nacimiento del Señor. Es por este motivo que la nota principal de este Tercer Domingo de Adviento es la alegría. La alegría es una parte esencial de nuestra fe y de nuestra vida de bautizados. Como seguidores de Cristo, debemos dar un testimonio alegre y convincente frente a la sociedad de hoy, muchas veces sumergida en la tristeza y el consumismo. La segunda lectura de hoy dice, "Vivan siempre alegres, oren sin cesar, den gracias en toda ocasión, pues esto es lo que quiere Dios de ustedes en Cristo Jesús" (1 Tes 5,16-18). El Papa Francisco actualmente nos lo explica de la siguiente manera: "También nosotros, cuando estamos en la oscuridad, que no vemos nada: 'Yo sé, Señor, que esta tristeza se volverá alegría. ¡No sé cómo, pero lo sé!. Un acto de fe en el Señor. ¡Un acto de fe! ...Y el signo que nosotros tenemos de esta alegría en la esperanza es la paz" (Homilía del 30 de mayo de 2014). Nuestro reto es no impedir la acción del Espíritu Santo creando un clima de esperanza en nosotros mismos, para así ser portadores de la luz y la alegría que implica el tener al Señor entre nosotros. ¿Tenemos esperanza? ¿Tenemos alegría? Todo nuestro ser debe de comunicar signos visibles de gozo, estar atentos congruentes con lo que hacemos y decimos. Nuestra identidad como cristianos es punto clave como seguidores de Cristo. Como ejemplo tenemos a Juan Bautista: "Yo soy la voz que grita en el desierto: 'Enderecen el camino del Señor', como anunció el profeta Isaías" (Jn 1, 23). ¿Hemos enderezado el camino en este Adviento?

Lo hacemos cuando vivimos una vida de fe y traemos la alegría del Evangelio a todos los que nos encontramos en el camino. Somos personas de alegría; estamos felices de su nacimiento y esperamos su llegada. Compartimos esa alegría cuando nos hacemos cargo de las necesidades de los pobres, cuando ayudamos a los que están desconsolados, y somos testigos de la libertad que Dios trae. Ojalá que nos tomemos en serio la tarea de ser testigos alegres ya que se acerca la celebración del nacimiento de Cristo.
