SASJ Bible Study

Mission: To bring the Scriptures to life for our parish community.

The SASJ Bible Study just completed an exciting series on the Catholic Letters (1, 2, and 3 John, 1 and 2 Peter, James, and Jude) where we learned about many of the struggles of the fledgling Catholic Church and how it has endured for over two thousand years. Not surprising since Jesus said the gates of hell would never prevail against His Church and that He would be with us always! Next up for the study group is the Gospel of Mark. Come journey with us a we discover who Jesus was and is. All are welcome.

We meet on Sundays at 10:30 am in the St Jude Conference Room.

GOSPEL MEDITATION March 11, 2018 4th Sunday of Lent

Why is the world the way it is? We all wonder that from time to time. Each successive generation projects rose-hued longing on the past and casts furtive glances at the impending future. We see forces beyond our control in nature and in the newspaper. The world is changing and we're being pulled out with the tide. In the face of this confusion, today's Gospel features one of the most oft-quoted Scripture verses of all time: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." But if Christ has come, why is the world so challenging? Why is the world still - to our eyes - being carried off in a proverbial hand basket? Jesus' response is a deeply personal one. "This is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light." Patterns arise, habits are formed, and systems become engrained, but each is the result of an interconnected web of human choices. Where do we stand? Our answers, perhaps, vary from week to week, hour to hour, missed traffic light to spilled coffee to teenage child's rebellion. The world isn't perfect because we aren't perfect. Our parish is flawed because we're flawed. Our families need work because every one of us needs to be converted. Christianity is a process, not a destination! This Sunday, Jesus invites us to consider our own lives. Where in our own lives do we prefer darkness to light? What flaws are we trying to hide? Humbly acknowledge those places today. Ask God for the grace to be transformed. Share with your spouse or a friend where you'd like to improve this week. "Whoever loves truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God."

Saint Anne Adult Education Group

Join us as we explore Bishop Robert Barron's Pivotal Players. We will look at 6 important figures in Catholicism, examining their contributions to our faith and tradition, and seeing why Bishop Barron considers each a pivotal player in our faith. For more info, contact Charley Francis at 803-469-4584 or cfrancis@ftc-i.net. We hope you join us.

El sábado antepasado tuvimos el "Rito de Elección" que marca el comienzo del tercer periodo de nuestro curso de iniciación en la Iglesia Católica, el "Periodo de Purificación e Iluminación". Este Rito se celebró en Columbia con el obispo. Pasando por este periodo indica que los candidatos y catecúmenos (que ahora se llaman los "elegidos") están firmemente resueltos y comprometidos a abrazar las enseñanzas de Cristo y unirse a la Iglesia Católica. Ahora hemos pasado a un tiempo de reflexión intensa centrado en la conversión, y marcado por la celebración de los tres "escrutinios" que están destinados a purificar y encausar a la eliminación de las "barreras" del pecado y del mal que podrían impedir que experimentar la plenitud del amor transformador de Dios. Pedimos sus oraciones por nuestro elegido Claudio Cruz Rodríguez, y por nuestros candidatos: Samuel López Mazaba, Sebastiana Saquic Larios y Basilio Morente Castro.
