Come Grow with Us!!!

Don't let the for sale sign in the school yard fool you. We are currently accepting new enrollments for all grades. Our high school students will begin the 2018-2019 school year as St. Anne & St. Jude Catholic School Guardians!!! Are you ready to join us on this new adventure as we ascend to new heights as a unified kindergarten to 12th grade school?

Happy Summer Everyone! I hope you have had time to rest, relax, and refresh. Since the students have been out for summer break, the school has been buzzing with activity. The classroom trim, cabinets, and cubbies have been painted thanks to parents, teachers, parishioners representing the Catholic Youth of Sumter, the Knights of Columbus as well as those coming because they read it on the Facebook page and the Parish App. Mr. and Mrs. Spivey have been painting ceilings this week and Mr. Spivey is very close to starting on the walls. Everything is looking great and we couldn't have gotten this far without each person's help!! Thank you!!!!

So, where are we now? It is now time to plan for putting everything back into the classrooms. This can be a very daunting task if we do not have many hands to help us. This is where we need YOU!!! On Saturday, August 4, beginning at 8am, we will move all of the furniture and classroom materials back into their refreshed spaces. The more people we can have available to help with this the faster and easier it will be. We will provide lunch and daycare. Please mark your calendars and bring a friend!

If you have any questions, please contact us at the school or through email.

The Women's Guild retreat will be held on August 4th from 8:30 until 2:30. Sally Osborne's home at 18 Warren Street. Please join us for a day of prayer, learning, and planning. Call 883-4494 with any questions or to register.

Saint Anne Sunday Adult Education

Join the St. Anne Adult Ed group as we continue the Augustine Institute Series, Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist.

We meet after the 8:00 am Mass in the Adult Ed room (the old kindergarten).

Come by and partake of this amazing series, Some outstanding fellowship, and our coffee and Donut ministry. More information, contact Charley Francis at 803-469-4584 or cfrancis@ftc-i.net.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

You sit down at a restaurant and order drinks and an appetizer. Then you order an entrée with a salad. When all of that has been consumed, you order a dessert. You leave after having had a good time, but your pants don't fit so well now. You are so full you regret ordering all those courses. Your eyes were bigger than your stomach. You ordered what you wanted and not what you needed. In our daily lives, we find ourselves wanting many things. We desire outcomes and good fortunes that we think will make all the difference. However, oftentimes when we receive these things, we only find ourselves wanting more. Worse yet, if we do not get them, we can see our lives as incomplete.

God always provides what we need. It may not be what we want. Our eyes can deceive us into believing that what we receive is not enough to fulfill us. If we trust in God and seek to only live with what sustains us rather than dive into excess, we will find that we are happier, healthier, and at peace. No one should ever make himself or herself feel overcome by too much of anything. God knows what we need even if we cannot see it for ourselves.

Our Prayer Today, Our Reality Tomorrow

Almighty and ever-loving God we thank You for the many blessings You have given to us all in our parishes of St. Jude and St. Anne throughout these many years. Bless us today as we accept the challenges we face to build one united parish community. We ask you to bless all the families in our parishes. We ask that our love for you and for each other continue to grow and mature as we work to accomplish the task of building our future together. Teach us to be generous in giving so that our unified church will be a place of honor that will give glory to you forever. We ask that you unite us and lead us all to the glory of eternal happiness in heaven. Dear God may our prayer today be a reality tomorrow through the power of the Holy Spirit and the guidance of Jesus and with the blessings of our Mother Mary. AMEN

GOSPEL MEDITATION July 29, 2018 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Have you ever wanted to be part of something bigger? Even the most independent among us likes to make changes and have an impact on others. In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus demonstrates one of his most iconic miracles – the multiplication of the loaves. It is a sign of the institution of the Eucharist, when we are fed not by bread but by the Body of Christ. In the stories of ancient pagan gods, mighty deeds were done entirely under the gods' own power. Mortals may have offered sacrifices to start the chain of events, but they played little role in the miraculous works themselves. Jesus is entirely different. The multiplication of the loaves is a prime example not only of Jesus' power over nature, but of the way he equips his disciples. First, Jesus asks Philip a question "to test him." Jesus has seen the crowds and "he himself knew what he was going to do," but he wants his disciples to start thinking about the problem and its solution. Andrew offers a suggestion, though he isn't confident in it. "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus honors Andrew's suggestion, takes the offered loaves, and delegates the Apostles to bring order to the crowd. When the crowd has been fed, the Apostles "gather the fragments left over." In the process, they discover with wonder that bread has been produced in super abundance. In the sacraments, God works through simple matter to make grace real in our lives. He works in and through us as well. Are you facing problems that could have spiritual solutions? Is there a need in your parish or community that you could meet? Whatever our hesitations, Jesus honors our simple loaves and fishes. He invites us to participate in his generous work of redemption, just as we are.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO - 29 de julio de 2018 17º Domingo del tiempo ordinario

La lectura de Reyes y el Evangelio están entrelazadas por el misterioso milagro de multiplicación del pan, de lo poco a lo mucho. Humanamente, en el episodio de la multiplicación, el sirviente de Eliseo y Felipe no calcularon lo que necesitarían para saciar el hambre de la multitud. Sin embargo, la misericordia de Dios, como siempre, se excede en abundancia al dar crédito a la falta de cálculo de los encargados de repartir el pan. En el libro de Reyes, Eliseo, con veinte panes, logra saciar el hambre de cien personas. Eliseo le dice a su sirviente: "Dáselos y que coman, porque esto dice Yavé: comerán y sobrá. Les sirvieron, comieron y les sobró, tal como lo había dicho Yavé" (2 Re. 4:43-44).

En el Evangelio, Jesús, con cinco panes y dos pescados solamente, da de comer a unas cinco mil personas, y recogieron doce canastos llenos con los pedazos que no se habían comido (Jn. 6:12-13). Nadie puede estar preparado para la superabundancia de los regalos de Dios por medio de Jesús. En nuestra experiencia, tener abundancia de bienes y riqueza usualmente es un signo de trabajar mucho o heredar bienes. En las lecturas de este domingo, la abundancia es señal segura de los dones que recibimos de Dios. Para los discípulos de Jesús, que somos todos los bautizados, la grandeza de parte de Dios por medio de su Hijo Jesús es la Eucaristía que vivimos cada domingo. En la vida, existen otras abundancias de las que se debe agradecer. La familia y los amigos que disfrutamos alrededor de nosotros. ¿Hemos calculado estas maravillas?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Living the Gospel does not require much. In fact, less is sometimes more. Simple gestures or random acts of kindness can have unimaginable results and change lives. It is easy to believe that we do not have what it takes to make a difference, but we do! The key is to learn how to be grateful for the little gifts you possess and share them freely and abundantly. It does not take much to satisfy the hungers of the human heart or mend the wounds of sorrow and pain. All we need to know is that God is with us. All people need to know is that we are with them. God provides the rest. Truly be present to those you meet this week and offer them your most precious gift, the gift of yourself.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Vivir el Evangelio no requiere mucho. De hecho, a veces menos es más. Simples gestos o actos esporádicos de bondad pueden tener resultados inimaginables y cambiar vidas. Es fácil creer que no tenemos lo que necesitamos para marcar la diferencia, ¡pero sí lo tenemos! La clave es aprender a ser agradecidos por los pequeños dones que poseemos y compartirlos con libertad y en abundancia. No se requiere mucho para satisfacer las ansias del corazón humano o sanar las heridas de la tristeza y el dolor. Todo lo que necesitamos saber es que Dios está con nosotros. Todas las personas necesitan saber que estamos a su lado. Dios provee el resto. Acércate en verdad a quienes se crucen en tu camino esta semana y ofréceles tu don más preciado, el don de ti mismo
