ANNOUNCEMENT

As you may be aware, Bishop Guglielmo released a letter, the list of credibly accused priests, and a Question & Answer document on Friday afternoon. If you have not yet seen this information, you can access it via the homepage of the Diocese's website. The address is www.sccatholic.org.

The Diocese of Charleston encourages any victim of abuse by Church personnel to first report the abuse to law enforcement, and then to contact the Diocese's Victim Assistance Coordinator, Louisa Storen, at 800-921-8122, to request access to pastoral resources, including a counseling referral when appropriate.

Bishop Guglielmo asks everyone to continue to pray for all victims of sexual abuse and their families that they may find peace and healing.

A PRAYER FOR HEALING

Almighty and most loving God, through your Son your compassion brought healing to many. We ask for your healing once more for all who have been profoundly wounded by abuse, especially those who have been hurt by your ministers. In your mercy, we also ask for forgiveness. Words cannot express fully the sorrow we have for the great harm done by those who were called to be trusted. In your goodness, we ask for the grace to be a source of healing to all who have been abused and to be ever vigilant in protecting all your people. Grant, we pray, our prayers for healing and forgiveness, for we ask them through your Son, Christ our Lord. Amen

Thank you Lawn Care Angels

The St. Jude grounds are cared for primarily by a volunteer team of four "Angels". Each of them mowing, edging, and removing debris one week per month. The prerequisite other than "willing wings", is wanting to serve God through an attractive Church landscape. Jim Kaczmarczyk turned in his "wings" last year after many years manicuring the grass school and the church. Fran Cecil just turned in her mower key after 3 years of meticulous days, leaving No Leaf behind. Thank you Jim and Fran for doing beautiful work these past years. The 2019 team consists of Claude Epperson, Paul Krouse, Jackie Lucius, and Calvin Glisson. Feel free to help out on any Friday or Saturday that calls you. Bill Todt, landscape coordinator, can be reached at 803-469- 6863.
