ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF CHARLESTON

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

July 3, 2019

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On July 11, 2020, Catholics in South Carolina will mark the 200th anniversary of the creation of the Diocese of Charleston. Our diocese was founded in 1820 to minister to immigrant Catholics scattered across Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina.

We were truly blessed by the Holy Spirit in the anointing of John England as Bishop of this territory. In him, we had a priest with a missionary spirit and a shepherd who truly embraced the Constitution of the United States and its freedom of religion. His foresight remains an inspiration today as we face new, yet familiar, challenges to our beliefs.

Over the next year we will examine our history, celebrate our present, and apply the lessons of faith and tenacity we have learned to our future as true disciples of Jesus Christ. Additionally, your parish will host its own events as we mark this important milestone in our history.

I invite you to visit our diocesan website to learn about upcoming events and to participate in your parish's activities over the next year as we commemorate and celebrate the Church in South Carolina as One Family in Faith.

May God bless you, your parish and our diocese.

In the Lord's Peace,

Most Reverend Robert E. Guglielmone
Bishop of Charleston

Bicentennial Prayer

Heavenly Father, source of all good things, in every generation You gather a people to yourself and endow them with the means to spread Your Gospel.

Through Your Son, Jesus Christ, you have formed the parishes and missions of South Carolina into one body working to build your Kingdom across our seven deaneries of Aiken, Beaufort, Charleston, Columbia, Greenville, Myrtle Beach, and Rock Hill.

Through Your Holy Spirit, give us generous and sacrificial hearts as our diocese enters its third century. Transform us into good stewards of the blessings You bestow upon each one of us.

As one family in faith, we pray that our gifts strengthen our parishes and missions, form Catholics to Believe in the Gospel, and guide us to live your Gospel through social outreach.

We ask all of this through our one Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

So many times in my life, I have failed to start something because I had not yet adequately prepared. I would have started working out or going for a jog, but I needed to get the right shoes. I would have started eating right if only I could find the time and money to buy the right foods. I would have started that journaling project, but I couldn't without a really nice leather-bound journal. I would have, I would have, and I would have!

I know many people can relate. We offer up excuses for so many things. Sometimes we even get to the point where we do start something, but by then, we have already lost so much time.

Some of us are thinking about taking a stewardship way of life seriously, but we are just not ready yet. We would be more generous if we can first get out of debt. We would give of our time, but we have to wait until the kids get older or until we fully research our options. The truth is, we don't have to be in any particular state of life or have any specific financial portfolio to start giving our very selves to God. God takes us as we are now. No resume needed. Why waste so much time thinking about getting started and becoming serious? Time is a gift given to all of us. As we think and prepare endlessly, we are practicing poor stewardship. The time to start is today. Who wants to answer God one day at the gates of Heaven saying, "I would have."? - Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LIVE THE LITURGY

We have heard the story of the Good Samaritan so many times. Have we ever realized that it is an enemy and outcast who is the hero of the story? Freed from laws that limit acts of mercy and compassion, the Samaritan becomes the example of how to love God by loving our neighbor. Our minds know what our faith teaches, and our mouths know what words to speak. Ultimately, deep down in our conscience, we know how we ought to act. Yet, as we encounter each new day, do we always do what we are called to do? Our neighbors live next to us and far away. They are down the street, sitting beside us, living in Mexico, Honduras, Ecuador, Guatemala, Poland, Russia, China, Korea, and Iraq. Our neighbors are even found in people who want to hurt us. How do we love them as Jesus asks us to? How we answer this question will determine how much we really love God.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Hemos escuchado la historia del Buen Samaritano tantas veces. ¿Alguna vez nos hemos dado cuenta de que es un enemigo y un marginado el héroe de la historia? Libre de leyes que limitan los actos de misericordia y compasión, el samaritano se convierte en el ejemplo de cómo amar a Dios amando a nuestro prójimo. Nuestras mentes saben lo que enseña nuestra fe y nuestras bocas saben qué palabras hablar. En última instancia, en lo profundo de nuestra conciencia, sabemos cómo debemos actuar. Sin embargo, a medida que nos encontramos con cada nuevo día, ¿siempre hacemos lo que estamos llamados a hacer? Nuestro prójimo vive al lado y lejos de nosotros. Están al final de la calle, sentados a nuestro lado, viviendo en México, Honduras, Ecuador, Guatemala, Polonia, Rusia, China, Corea e Irak. Nuestro prójimo se encuentra incluso en personas que quieren lastimarnos. ¿De que manera los amamos como Jesús nos lo pide? La forma en que respondamos a esta pregunta determinará cuánto amamos realmente a Dios.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Loving isn't too difficult, right? Many of us are surrounded by kind, lovely people trying to do the right thing. Indeed, to "love ? your neighbor as yourself" seems like it should be easy enough. Treat people like you would like to be treated. Bring the new neighbors some baked goods (normal and gluten-free, just in case). Chat with the bank teller about his holiday weekend. Write an occasional card to your sister "just because." There were probably varieties of these acts of kindness in Jesus' day. Perhaps substituting figs for cookies. But "exchange pleasantries with the traveling cloth merchant" isn't the example Jesus gives.

"A man fell victim to robbers... they stripped him and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead." The righteous pass by the scene of the dying man. The hero of the story is the one on the margins of Jewish society, who perhaps would not have been welcomed, in other circumstances, by the man now in the ditch. His neighborly love causes him to halt his journey, to tend wounds, and to pay for the man's care out of his own savings. Are we interruptible? Are we attentive to the hurts of others? Are we generous with our money and possessions?

In the past few weeks, who has crossed your mind as someone in need of help? Perhaps it's an acquaintance suffering from cancer. Maybe you were invited to donate or volunteer to a local social cause, but it just won't stick in your mind (or schedule) to make it happen. The needs of people are many and varied. We can't help everyone, but God does place opportunities in our path for compassion and courageous love. This week, be "the one who treated him with mercy."
