“Catholic schools afford the fullest and best opportunity to realize the fourfold purpose of Christian education, namely to provide an atmosphere in which the Gospel message is proclaimed, community in Christ is experienced, service to our sisters and brothers is the norm, and thanksgiving and worship of our God is cultivated.”
(US Conference of Catholic Bishops, 2005)

The Diocese of Charleston Policy on Sacramental Preparation

The expectation of Saint Anne and Saint Jude Roman Catholic Church is that upon entering into a Sacramental program, the youth would have attended a Religious Education program for at least one full year prior. Once entered into a Sacramental program, it is the expectation that the youth will attend classes and retreats faithfully. If you know your child is going to be absent on a scheduled class day, please notify the teacher, DRE or Dir of Faith Formation. All contact information is available on the front cover of the bulletin OR on the parish website.

Política de la Diócesis de Charleston sobre la preparación Sacramental
La expectativa de la Oficina de Formación de la Fe de la Iglesia de Sta. Ana y San Judas es que, al entrar a un Programa Sacramental, el joven haya asistido previamente al programa de Educación Religiosa por lo menos por un año completo (de acuerdo al registro de asistencia). Una vez ingresado al programa de Preparación Sacramental se requiere que el joven asista a todas las clases y retiros, participando fielmente. Si por alguna razón tu hijo hubiera que faltar algún domingo, favor de avisar al maestro.

If you are currently or thinking of home schooling your child for Religious Education, please make sure you are following the Diocesan Guidelines below.

"Occasionally, parents wish to home school their children for religious education. This is permitted in the diocese when it is done under the guidance and approval of the parish's pastor or administrator and the director or coordinator of religious education.

It is diocesan policy that children and youth receiving their religious education at home participate in the sacramental preparation programs offered in their parishes with other religious education and Catholic school students."
