GOSPEL MEDITATION

Where would you go if the world was ending? What would you do? The last decade has seen a rise in doomsday prepping, the marketing of survival techniques, and a sea of products designed for you to weather the apocalypse. "The days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another that will not be thrown down," Jesus warns in today's Gospel. On the one hand, he is referring to the literal downfall of the city of Jerusalem. Indeed, many of his prophecies here have come true over the last few millennium. Nations have indeed "rise[n] against nation[s]," kingdoms against kingdoms. Surf any world news website today alone, and you will see stories of "powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues." Jesus' advice to his disciples, however, isn't to build a bunker. It's to persevere in faith ... which won't be easy. "They will seize and persecute you ... you will be handed over ... you will be hated because of my name." This warning, too, has come to pass in the Church throughout history in state-sponsored persecutions and martyrdoms. Jesus is the Messiah, but his first coming was not a coming of earthly victory. Any disciple of his can expect a challenge. The coming of Christ didn't disrupt our free will. Evil still exists and sometimes even appears to triumph. This does not mean God has abandoned His people! Jesus reminds the disciples — and us — of his constant presence. "I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking." In other Gospel passages, Jesus promises and sends the Holy Spirit upon his followers. The presence of God is real in our lives, no matter what trials come our way. It's tempting to be distracted or dismayed by natural destruction and moral evil in the world. But the Church has weathered greater storms. The sacredness of the human person endures. We can have hope! This day and every day, we can persevere in hope and trust in God.

A Presentation On Vocation Awareness

6:15pm-8:15pm at the Youth Building at the Saint Jude Location

For Our Weekly Youth Group Meeting!

Join Us For Food, Fellowship & FUN

The Religious is a man of God, and therefore a man of prayer. He, therefore, will have God as his first and principal interlocutor of his day.

A vocation is a gift from God. A vocation to the Clerics Regular Minor (Adorno Fathers and Brothers) is a particular call of God to place one's life at the service of the Church according to the Charism of our Founders. Membership in our community affords men the opportunity to serve God through parish work, missionary activities, retreat works and teaching. As a family, we strive to share with one another the joys and sorrows of everyday life. As a religious, the candidate may pursue the priestly life, brother or permanent deacon.

From ancient desert monasticism to contemporary forms of religious life, a small band of Christian men and women in every generation choose to consecrate their lives to God with unique vows of love and service that give radical witness to the gospel.

- Four additional Masses throughout the year on Christmas, Easter, St. Michael's Feast (September 29th), and All Souls Day;
- Additional remembrances in the spiritual work of the Adorno Fathers, such as Divine Office and the prayers of our seminarians throughout the world.

LIVE THE LITURGY

God's fidelity is at the heart of Scripture. Trusting in God's all-encompassing and abiding presence is what true faith is really all about. The sincere disciples always have their eyes on Jesus Christ and are not distracted by what others are doing or what is happening around them. We know that the world had a beginning, and we know that it will one day end. Trying to predict when that end will come or becoming too preoccupied with the business of others are futile endeavors. All they do is divert us from our main purpose and goal: to live and act in the person of Christ. Being a faithful son or daughter and witness to God's faithfulness is all that is required and all that we need. If we do this well, it does not matter whether the world as we know it comes to an end tomorrow or at some unforeseen time in the future. We will be ready and properly prepared. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA (Live the Liturgy)

La fidelidad de Dios está en el corazón de las Escrituras. Confiar en la presencia abarcadora y permanente de Dios es de lo que realmente se trata la verdadera fe. Los discípulos sinceros siempre tienen sus ojos en Jesucristo y no se distraen por lo que otros están haciendo o lo que está sucediendo a su alrededor. Sabemos que el mundo tuvo un principio, y sabemos que algún día terminará. Tratar de predecir cuándo llegará ese fin o preocuparse demasiado por el negocio de los demás son esfuerzos inútiles. Todo lo que hacen es desviarnos de nuestro principal propósito y objetivo: vivir y actuar en la persona de Cristo. Ser un hijo o una hija fiel y dar testimonio de la fidelidad de Dios es todo lo que se requiere y todo lo que necesitamos. Si hacemos esto bien, no importa si el mundo como lo conocemos llega a su fin mañana o en algún momento imprevisto en el futuro. Estaremos listos y debidamente preparados. ©LPi
