WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Question: I can't explain it. I feel a nudge from God to something out of the ordinary. How do I respond?

Answer: You're in good company! Abraham was asked to leave all he knew and loved for a strange land, with only abstract divine assurance that such a sacrifice would be worth it. Plenty of prophets protested against God's call, whether it was claiming they were too young (Jeremiah) or running away entirely, only to end up in a whale's belly (Jonah). St. Joseph was asked to do something very strange. He was asked to believe — on the word of an angelic appearance in a dream — that his betrothed was pregnant not from another man, but by a miraculous intervention of God. Then he was called to marry her.

Author Flannery O'Connor once wrote, "You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you odd." Sometimes God's invitation might seem strange or challenging. It might require sacrifices we never expected to make. Our life might look different than we had always imagined. But as we all know, life throws its own curveballs, regardless of whether or not we're listening for God's will. Better, one would think, to be open to the promptings of God and to follow along the strange trails that they lead. We have the assurance that, eventually, we will find green pastures.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Each Advent season, we prepare to welcome Jesus into the inns and stables of our hearts. But Jesus' coming wasn't welcomed by everyone with choirs of angels. For St. Joseph, the first coming of Jesus was a bit more complicated. "When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit." For Joseph, opening his heart (and home) to Jesus meant, at best, appearing to all the world like a man who had impregnated his wife out of wedlock. At worst, he appeared a cuckold, raising the child of another man. God doesn't always appear the way we expect.

For some of us, the birth of Christ is a bit relationally complicated. Perhaps over the past few months, a loved one has died. This Christmas, you're taking it upon yourself to keep up the traditions and hold the family together. Welcoming Jesus means welcoming grief. Perhaps it's a difficult relative (or two or three) and it's all you can do to bite your tongue and swallow your pride while they're under your roof. Welcoming Jesus means welcoming strife, discord, and tension.

Yet "do not be afraid," the angel says. Do not be afraid. Why? Because we celebrate the birth of "Emmanuel, which means 'God is with us.'" Before Jesus' earthly ministry would begin, Jesus would lose his father, Joseph. God is with us in our grief. Wherever Jesus went, he stirred up controversy and faced down challenging personalities. God is with us in our stress. The trick is, like Joseph, to allow supernatural grace to prevail. Joseph was a good man, filled with natural virtue in that he didn't want to "expose [Mary] to shame." Yet he was prepared to "divorce her quietly" all the same. Our natural abilities only take us so far. Where is receiving Jesus complicated this Christmas season? Are you relying on your own strength to get you through, or are you truly ready to accept the grace of Emmanuel, God with us? ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY

Have you ever asked God for a sign? What were you hoping to see? Signs validate our experience and give us assurance and direction. We tend to equate God's signs with miraculous or marvelous events. We even sometimes look for small gestures as signs that God is confirming a particular experience or choice we are making. Being overly preoccupied with receiving these kinds of signs from God can often signal a lack of faith. Is there anything that can convince us that God is real and with us on our journey? Yes. God's sign has already been given: the virgin shall conceive and bear a son and shall name him Emmanuel. Emmanuel, God with us, is God's most perfect sign and the only one we need. Our incarnate God is all we need to set us straight and validate our experience. Only Jesus can direct us to the Father, to our self, one another, and our world. When our lives are conformed to His, nothing else is needed. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA (Live the Liturgy)

¿Alguna vez le has pedido a Dios una señal? ¿Qué esperabas ver? Las señales validan nuestra experiencia y nos dan seguridad y dirección. Tendemos a equivaler las señales de Dios con eventos milagrosos o maravillosos. Incluso a veces buscamos pequeños gestos como signos de que Dios está confirmando una experiencia particular o una elección que estamos haciendo. Estar demasiado preocupado por recibir este tipo de signos de Dios a menudo puede indicar una falta de fe. ¿Hay algo que pueda convencernos de que Dios es real y que está con nosotros en nuestro viaje? Sí. Ya se ha dado la señal de Dios: la virgen concebirá y dará a luz un hijo y lo llamará Emmanuel. Emmanuel, Dios con nosotros, es la señal más perfecta de Dios y la única que necesitamos. Nuestro Dios encarnado es todo lo que necesitamos para enderezarnos y validar nuestra experiencia. Solo Jesús puede dirigirnos al Padre, a nosotros mismos, a los demás y a nuestro mundo. Cuando nuestras vidas se conforman a la suya, no se necesita nada más. ©LPi

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading

The prophet Isaiah challenges king Ahaz to be bold in his prayer to God: "Ask for a sign ... let it be as deep as the netherworld, or high as the sky!" How would you rate your own boldness of prayer to God?

Second Reading

In the opening words of his letter to the Christians in Rome, Paul asserts that all believers (Jew and Gentile alike) are called to be holy. How do you think the season of Advent helps us develop holiness?

Gospel Reading

Matthew focuses on Joseph in recounting the birth of Jesus. (Luke, by comparison, focuses on Mary). How do you imagine Joseph processed over time this angelic revelation of Mary's conception and Jesus' birth?

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA
(Questions of the Week)

Primera Lectura

El profeta Isaías desafía al rey Ajaz a ser valiente en su oración a Dios: "Pide al Señor...una señal de abajo, en lo profundo o de arriba, en lo alto." ¿Cómo calificarías tu propia valentía en la oración a Dios?

Segunda Lectura

En las palabras iniciales de su carta a los cristianos en Roma, Pablo afirma que todos los creyentes (judíos y paganos por igual) están llamados a ser santos. ¿Cómo crees que la temporada de Adviento nos ayuda a desarrollar la santidad?
