EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Drop Your Nets and Be Free There are times I wish I had no obligations. It would be great to take my wife's hand, hop in the car, and drive into the sunset. Where we were going would not matter as much as the fact that we would have nowhere we had to be. There would be nothing we had to do. No bills. No commitments. No problems. Freedom!

Life doesn't work like that, however. When Jesus came along and asked some fishermen to drop their nets and follow him, they did just that. Wow! In some ways, they experienced true freedom. That is what Jesus offers all of us. Yet, true freedom looks quite different than my dream scenario.

In living in the true freedom that Jesus offers, there are things we must do and places we must go. That is because freedom only exists in following God's will, not our own. We are called to be and called to give ourselves completely to God without reservations. We always have the free will to not respond to His call, but we will find that a negative answer may complicate our lives even further. God's path for us calls on us to give freely of what we have been given. Saying no to that call means we carry the weight of those gifts. We were never meant to keep them. The path of God's will may seem long and winding, but it is the one that leads us into that sunset. It is the way to true freedom.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Do you feel overly oppressed or burdened by life's demands or feel unsettled and anxious about where you find yourself? Many walk through life carrying very heavy sacks on their shoulders and are weighed down by them. Moments of joy and light are far and few between, with darkness and disappointment being more the norm. God desires that we live in light and experience joy. Christ has revealed this to us. Often, we give the world and things we have created too much power over us. We lose our sense of playfulness and freedom and allow other people and things to define and influence us. We are asked to reclaim ourselves today and realize that we are being asked to spread the Gospel of joy. Are we able and willing to do this?

©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

¿Te sientes demasiado oprimido o agobiado por las demandas de la vida o te sientes inquieto y ansioso por el lugar donde te encuentras? Muchos caminan por la vida llevando sacos muy pesados sobre sus hombros y son abrumados por ellos. Los momentos de gozo y luz son lejanos y escasos, con la oscuridad y la desilusión siendo más la norma. Dios desea que vivamos en la luz y experimentemos gozo. Cristo nos ha revelado esto. A menudo, le damos al mundo y las cosas que hemos creado demasiado poder sobre nosotros. Perdemos nuestro sentido de alegría y libertad y permitimos que otras personas y cosas nos definan e influyan. Se nos pide reclamarnos hoy y darnos cuenta de que se nos pide que difundamos el Evangelio de la alegría. ¿Somos capaces y estamos dispuestos a hacer esto?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

It begins! Jesus is doing something new. "He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea." Jesus leaves his family, his profession of carpentry, and everything he has known and loved for the previous 30 years. He goes because it is time. Something new is beginning, and Jesus will not begin it alone. "As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers ... he walked along from there and saw two other brothers." What does he say to these men? "Come after me." These words are for Peter and Andrew, for James and for John. They are also for all of us.

"Come after me." The adventure of discipleship will be strange, wild, and unexpected. The Apostles surely didn't know what they were getting into. But the invitation is accompanied by a promise. "I will make you fishers of men," Jesus tells the first Apostles. No more will their priorities be limited to this particular village, to the square miles of the Sea of Galilee. Their eyes will be open to the kingdom of God, and their priorities will shift.

Most of us will not be called to roam the countryside, but we are invited to a similar shift of priorities. "Come after me," Jesus says. "At once they left their nets and followed him." Drop the nets of what you've demanded your life to be. Drop your self-seeking priorities. Drop your concept of religion as a Sunday obligation and no more. Drop your disregard for those outside your immediate social sphere. Whatever it is that keeps you from seeing as Jesus sees, from loving as he loves, start to drop it today. Because the kingdom of God is waiting for your yes!

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading - Isaiah prophesied a great reversal of fortune for the land of Zebulun and Naphtali (two regions from the Northern Kingdom of Israel). How do you show appreciation for God's unexpected blessings in your life?

Second Reading - Paul expresses his concerns over the divisions that had developed in the Christian community at Corinth. He seeks communal unity by focusing on "the cross of Christ." How well do you employ Paul's strategy when there is division in your faith community?

Gospel Reading -According to Matthew, Jesus begins his public ministry of teaching and healing from the city of Capernaum. What do you think were people's initial reaction to Jesus?
