GOSPEL MEDITATION

“Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.” Very often, having more light is not something we desire as it forces us to confront something we really do not want to see. There can be comfort found in darkness. It has an eerie sense of security to it. We do not have to challenge ourselves or be challenged and can simply exist in some fabricated state of self-fabricated blissfulness. Jesus came to bring light, and it is a light that is resisted by many and hated by some. It is a light that causes us to see things as they really are and not as we would want or need them to be.

It is no wonder then that Simeon boldly and honestly proclaims to Mary, “Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted and you yourself a sword will pierce so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.” We have to take the Gospel message as it is and not just use those parts that are useful to us or more palatable. Taking Jesus at face value can and will lead to turmoil and dissention. Hearts will be pierced. Whether we like it, Jesus’ proclamation of what the world God created really ought to look like has real and absolute social implications.

It has a lot to say about how we treat our brothers and sisters: spiritually, personally, economically, and globally. It has everything to do with the poor, the immigrant, the scared, the unborn, the vulnerable, the sick, and the broken. The light opens us to a challenging, table-turning experience that may not be something we want to see but shows us where we need to be.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Today's celebration can be seen as another "epiphany" of sorts, whereby Jesus is recognized as the one who will fulfill the Jewish people's messianic expectations. Jesus is the one who comes to purify and refine humanity and provide us with proper direction and focus. Jesus also presents himself to each one of us. Will we accept him as he is or only as we want or need him to be? The Gospel message is meant to be heard whole and entire. When it is, it is always a very challenging, table-turning experience that can make even the holiest among us feel a bit uncomfortable. Being purified and refined never comes easy and requires that we give ourselves fully to God and His design. Are we willing to do so?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

La celebración de hoy puede verse como otra especie de "epifanía", mediante la cual se reconoce a Jesús como el que cumplirá las expectativas mesiánicas del pueblo judío. Jesús es quien viene a purificar y refinar a la humanidad y a proporcionarnos con la dirección y el enfoque adecuados. Jesús también se nos presenta a cada uno de nosotros. ¿Lo aceptaremos como es o solo como queremos o necesitamos que sea? El mensaje del Evangelio está destinado a ser escuchado entero y completo. Cuando lo es, siempre es una experiencia muy desafiante y cambiante, que incluso puede hacer que los más santos se sientan un poco incómodos. Ser purificado y refinado nunca es fácil y requiere que nos entreguemos completamente a Dios y a Su diseño. ¿Estamos dispuestos a hacerlo?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Healing Our Blindness

The value of stewardship living is difficult to see unless we are experiencing that way of life for ourselves. You can read 100 Everyday Stewardship reflections and go to church every Sunday, but unless you are actively growing in faith and trying to live a life of generous stewardship, you cannot see the power of such a lifestyle. Like most things, we need direct, purposeful experiences to really understand.

I worked in a stewardship parish for over 20 years, but it was only after I started treating all I have as God's, and began to actively offer all I am to Him for His glory, that I really got the message. That doesn't mean I am a perfect steward. Far from it! However, the stress and anxiety that comes with life has greatly diminished because all is in God's hands. I choose to act more generously than before, which provides me with a sense of fulfillment and joy. How I act towards my family, friends, and even people I meet daily has changed. Now I am more mindful of their presence, and I seek to give them a part of me that just might change their day and bring them a little closer to Christ. I am transforming into a disciple who seeks to use all I have been given to transform all that is around me.

It would be a shame to be blind to the important things for an entire life. Today, consider taking a path of life-changing stewardship. Give it all to God. In the midst of all you have been given, you just might find God in a profound way. You may even find the real person God created you to be.

For many years the Adorno Fathers (Order of Clerics Regular Minor), in Ramsey have sponsored a PURGATORIAL SOCIETY UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF ST. MICHAEL, THE ARCHANGEL. Membership in the St. Michael's Pious Union brings a host of spiritual benefits to the souls who are enrolled.

- One Mass celebrated each weekday for the Happy Repose of all those enrolled;
- Four additional Masses throughout the year on Christmas, Easter, St. Michael's Feast (September 29th), and All Souls Day;
- Additional remembrances in the spiritual work of the Adorno Fathers, such as Divine Office and the prayers of our seminarians throughout the world.

The use of the St. Michael's Pious Union Mass cards can be both a convenient and fitting way to help you express your sentiments to friends and relatives when the occasion arises, as well as an appropriate way of supporting the work of the Adorno Fathers.

You can continue to obtain Mass cards as you have in the past, we can mail them to you if you are interested in becoming a promoter. We can also mail one for you anywhere in the United States. The suggested donation is $15 + postage.
