GOSPEL MEDITATION March 1st, 2020 1st Sunday of Lent

Life can easily spin us out of control. While there are so many wonderful opportunities before us, we can also get easily distracted and exhausted. There is always something to do, respond to, or check. The clutter of our lives can take us off course, and the best remedy for getting back on track is the experience of the desert. Here we can face our demons square on, resist them, and get back on course. We desperately need the season of Lent. This simple time of year forces us into greater awareness and grounds us in what is good and true. What weighs you down and keeps you trapped? Maybe you are trying to do too much and please too many people. It could be that your fragile self-image is always pushing you to prove yourself and find success. Anxiety and worry, ultimately due to a lack of faith, can quickly tempt you with despair. It could be that you are listening to too many voices and allowing all of the negativity that is present erode the genuine goodness in your heart and in all of God's creation. Or maybe you struggle too much with fear. Perhaps so much so that you are far too preoccupied with your own agenda and goals and left with little psychological or spiritual room to consider and respond to the plight of your neighbor. Do anger, bitterness, stubbornness, and hatred have homes in your heart? How about greed, gluttony, pride, apathy, or lust? For many, their passions and what can be found on the internet are their downfall, and they are robbed of their inner life and freedom. What is it, specifically, that tempts you away from a childlike trust in God? Define this and use the next few weeks to allow God to chart you a course away from them. Silence, being alone, grace, honesty, struggle, tears, and dryness are all found in the desert. You will also find God and your true self in this holy place. Ready to go? ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY

We desperately need the season of Lent. Have you ever found yourself running in all directions, tired, frustrated, and frazzled and yearning for the moment when you can stop, find some time for reflection and prayer, and get your head straight? Life pulls us in all directions. On top of that, the presence of sin in our lives gives us blurry vision and makes us forget who we really are. We can easily lose touch with God. Lent gives us the opportunity to return to simpler times and clear away some of life's clutter. We can change up our routines a bit and realize that Jesus is the one who can set us right with God and restore what was originally meant to be. Our task is to avoid the temptations that can weigh us down, distract us, and distort our vision. Are you aware of what things in your life do this to you? Over the next few weeks, you have an opportunity to avoid them. ©LPi

Saint Anne and Saint Jude Youth Ministry

Fr. Rufino Madridejos, CRM ~Youth Minister

ALL ABOUT FAITH....ALL ABOUT FUN....ALL ABOUT YOU!

O God, You have taught me from my youth, and I still declare Your wondrous deeds. Psalm 71:17

Sunday, March 1st - High School & Middle School Session 4: UNUNLIKELY LEADER

Sunday, March 8th - No Middle School or High School Youth Ministry

Sunday, April 19
Sunday, April 26
Sunday, May 3

Parents & Parishioners, we need a few volunteers willing to provide a meal to the Youth Ministry for the remaining meetings this year. Please contact Fr. Rufino or the Parish Office if you would like to help.

The top 10 reasons the SASJ Youth Group is a great place to be:

10. In any friendship, we make mistakes. Being part of a Youth group means we believe in forgiveness.
9. The negativity of others can bring us down. In a Youth group, we believe we are created in God's image and we are good to the core.
8. We look around our world and wish we could make a difference. In a Youth group, we are called to work together to make this a better world to live in.
7. It seems like there's no right or wrong in the world we live in. Being in a Youth group can give us direction and help us to choose what is right and provides friends who will support us.
6. By ourselves, we don't always feel close to God. Jesus promised that where two or three gather in His name – He is with them.
5. Some of the other teens around me seem so lethargic. They don't seem too excited about their faith. In a Youth group, most people are there because they want to be there. The enthusiasm is contagious.
4. In a Youth group, we have others with whom we can pray and share our concerns.
3. In a Youth group, Jesus is our role model and we have other leaders who strive to live like him.
2. In a Youth group, we can bring our friends who have the same needs we all have and who also need a supportive group of friends in their lives.
1. In a Youth group, we are connected to the larger church that Jesus established. It is a place where we can know our God, grow in love and faith, and change the world we live in.
