GOSPEL MEDITATION

Psychology has taught us a great deal about family dynamics and how we have come to be the person we find ourselves to be. We are comprised of such a mixed bag of blessings and obstacles with their graced moments and sinful ones. Think back on the journey of your life and how the many different and varied choices that you made influenced the direction your life. If you didn't go on that first date with your spouse, who would be beside you today? If you chose to be in one place rather than another, what would have happened to the course your life has taken? We are on such a wonderful, exciting journey. What is most incredible and awesome is that we are not alone! God is with us. He inspires, heals, opens doors, and calls us every moment of our lives. The very life we have is due only to Him. We can all sit down and list adjectives describing who we are. One may find him or herself more artistic than another or quicker with wit. We have unique gifts and talents and have the great gift of free will, which we treasure. Our histories come with more baggage for some and less hurdles for others, but we all have to find our way through the path we are on. However, have you ever given much thought to who you really are? That question has more merit than may at first appear. We know ourselves as we live out our earthly journey. But do we know our heavenly self? What we know here is only one small part of who God has made us to be. The disciples really thought they knew Jesus until they went up the mountain. We also may think we know our true selves, too. We know that in eternal life we shall not only see God, but become like Him. Who will you be? What surprise do you think God has for you? ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY

Have you ever given much thought to who you were really created to be? Our lives are the product of various circumstances, choices, predetermined scenarios, and a whole host of events and inherited baggage. All of these components come together and form the person we understand ourselves to be. Jesus knew who he was and who he was becoming. He showed his transfigured self to his disciples on a high mountain and revealed to them who he was really meant to be. The weaknesses, imperfections, fears, and impressions that we carry with us often color our choices and hinder us from really seeing the greater picture of who we are. What do you imagine your transfigured self to be? Jesus promises a new life in heaven. Have you ever given much thought to what that may mean for you? ©LPi

Saint Anne and Saint Jude Youth Ministry

Fr. Rufino Madridejos, CRM ~Youth Minister

ALL ABOUT FAITH....ALL ABOUT FUN....ALL ABOUT YOU!

O God, You have taught me from my youth, and I still declare Your wondrous deeds. Psalm 71:17

Sunday, March 8th - NO Middle School or High School Youth Ministry

Sunday, March 15th - Middle School & High School Session 4

$uper Denario Bro$.

The top 10 reasons the SASJ Youth Group is a great place to be:

10. In any friendship, we make mistakes. Being part of a Youth group means we believe in forgiveness.
9. The negativity of others can bring us down. In a Youth group, we believe we are created in God's image and we are good to the core.
8. We look around our world and wish we could make a difference. In a Youth group, we are called to work together to make this a better world to live in.
7. It seems like there's no right or wrong in the world we live in. Being in a Youth group can give us direction and help us to choose what is right and provides friends who will support us.
6. By ourselves, we don't always feel close to God. Jesus promised that where two or three gather in His name - He is with them.
5. Some of the other teens around me seem so lethargic. They don't seem excited about their faith. In a Youth group, most people are there because they want to be there. The enthusiasm is contagious.
4. In a Youth group, we have others with whom we can pray and share our concerns.
3. In a Youth group, Jesus is our role model and we have other leaders who strive to live like him.
2. In a Youth group, we can bring our friends who have the same needs we all have and who also need a supportive group of friends in their lives.
1. In a Youth group, we are connected to the larger church that Jesus established. It is a place where we can know our God, grow in love and faith, and change the world we live in.

For many years the Adomo Fathers (Order of Clerics Regular Minor), in Ramsey have sponsored a PURGATORIAL SOCIETY UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF ST. MICHAEL, THE ARCHANGEL. Membership in the St. Michael's Pious Union brings a host of spiritual benefits to the souls who are enrolled.

- One Mass celebrated each weekday for the Happy Repose of all those enrolled;
- Four additional Masses throughout the year on Christmas, Easter, St. Michael's Feast (September 29th), and All Souls Day;
- Additional remembrances in the spiritual work of the Adomo Fathers, such as Divine Office and the prayers of our seminarians throughout the world.

The use of the St. Michael's Pious Union Mass cards can be both a convenient and fitting way to help you express your sentiments to friends and relatives when the occasion arises, as well as an appropriate way of supporting the work of the Adomo Fathers.

You can continue to obtain Mass cards as you have in the past, we can mail them to you if you are interested in becoming a promoter. We can also mail one for you anywhere in the United States. The suggested donation is $15 + postage.

Please, contact us at St. Michael's House of Studies by mail or phone (201-327-7375), and let us know how we can serve you best.
