LIVE THE LITURGY

Our world wants us to believe that life is only what we make of it. Today, we realize how untrue that is. Life is ultimately about what God makes of it, and the resurrection of Jesus reveals this. Alleluia, Christ is risen! Who do you understand yourself to be? What we did yesterday, are doing today, and may do tomorrow pretty much determine how we perceive ourselves. We even perceive Jesus this way in limiting our vision of him to his earthly accomplishments. But, we know through today's triumphant celebration that Christ is much more than his earthly legacy. The transfigured and resurrected Christ is the beginning, the end, and the fulfillment of all things and every person. All that Jesus did stands in second place to who we now know him to be. Do we realize that this will be our journey too? Christ is risen. Alleluia, alleluia!

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Nuestro mundo quiere que creamos que la vida es solo lo que hacemos de ella. El día de hoy nos damos cuenta de lo falso que es eso. La vida se trata en última instancia de lo que Dios hace de ella, y la resurrección de Jesús lo revela. ¡Aleluya, Cristo ha resucitado! ¿Quién te entiendes que eres? Lo que hicimos ayer, lo que estamos haciendo hoy, y lo que podemos hacer mañana, determina cómo nos percibimos a nosotros mismos. Incluso percibimos a Jesús de esta manera al limitar nuestra visión de él a sus logros terrenales. Pero, a través de la celebración triunfante de hoy, sabemos que Cristo es mucho más que su legado terrenal. El Cristo transfigurado y resucitado es el principio, el fin y el cumplimiento de todas las cosas y de cada persona. Todo lo que Jesús hizo se ubica en segundo lugar de lo que ahora sabemos que es. ¿Nos damos cuenta de que este también será nuestro trayecto? Cristo ha resucitado. ¡Aleluya, aleluya!

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

When we awoke this morning, we found ourselves blessed with another day. It is Easter Sunday. As that thought crossed our minds, did we find ourselves saying “so what” or “alleluia”? For many, today is truly a day of alleluia. For others, it is just another day of “so what.” Faith makes a huge difference. It not only makes a difference in how we understand today and the significance of what we celebrate, it also makes a huge difference in terms of how we understand ourselves.

Succeed, live well, be productive, find your niche, follow your dreams, make money, protect your social status, be politically correct, and keep your preferences to yourself are pretty good examples of the messages our secular life wants us to hear. In and of themselves, they don't sound all that harmful. But when really examined, they are. The life of resurrection embodied in the Gospel tells us a much different story.

Life keeps us busy. We are always connected, distracted, occupied, and working. For many of us, an agenda awaits us before we even start our day, and unfinished stuff is brought with us when we retire at night. Make the best of life and “find your own road to happiness are messages we all too easily believe. The “so what” response to the new life of resurrection is often the result of believing that life is only what I make it. What God has to say isn't important to me securing my next raise.

Sadly, we live as if the grave is the end. While we may give the wonder of heaven a blink now and then, its glory really doesn't impress us or matter all that much. It's all about the here and now and what I need to do today to get where I want to be tomorrow. We tend to put off considering the one significant “tomorrow” that will come the millisecond after we take our last breath. When that happens, will we want to be thinking “so what?” or “alleluia”?

There is only one Jesus, one mission, and one resurrection. There is also only one of us. Have you ever pondered what one solitary, humble human life can do? Faith, not our world, tells us how special we are. We are not robots. We are not replaceable. We have one shot. There are no do-overs. Love is at our core and unites us together as one with the God of love who so desperately wants us to be with Him forever. This may not match our secular agenda, but it ought to make our true inner agenda leap for joy. There doesn't need to be an end. I can live forever. Alleluia!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Come to Christ Life is perhaps God's greatest gift to each of us. Without life, we would be unable to experience all the wonder of this world, the love of family and friends, and the joy that comes from using our talents and skills. Life itself is more profound a gift than we can even truly contemplate. On Easter, we celebrate life. For on this day, Jesus Christ conquered death and gave to us the chance for a life eternal. The wonder, love, and joy of this world does not have to end. Through a life in Jesus Christ, these emotions are heightened, and we find even greater fulfillment in this world. Maybe this Easter you are finding yourself open to taking a next step in your relationship with Jesus. This could be the moment you decide to follow Him more closely and take seriously all that he has given you. If so, welcome to the journey, where there are many other disciples on that same path who can help show you the way and share their stories. If not, hopefully it doesn't take a whole year for this possibility to be considered again. Jesus is alive and waiting to get closer to you. May this Easter season find you and Our Lord getting to know one another in a whole new way.

Happy Easter!

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA (Everyday Stewardship)

Ven a Cristo La vida es quizás el mayor regalo de Dios para cada uno de nosotros. Sin la vida, no podríamos experimentar todas las maravillas de este mundo, el amor de la familia y los amigos, y el gozo que proviene de usar nuestros talentos y habilidades. La vida misma es un regalo más profundo de lo que realmente podemos contemplar. En la Pascua, celebramos la vida. Porque en este día, Jesucristo conquistó la muerte y nos dio la oportunidad de una vida eterna. La maravilla, el amor y el gozo de este mundo no tiene que terminar. A través de una vida en Jesucristo, estas emociones se intensifican, y encontramos un cumplimiento aún mayor en este mundo. Tal vez esta Pascua te encuentres abierto a dar el siguiente paso en tu relación con Jesús. Este podría ser el momento en que decidas seguirlo más de cerca y tomar en serio todo lo que él te ha dado. Si es así, bienvenido a esta travesía, donde hay muchos otros discípulos en este mismo trayecto que pueden ayudarte a mostrarte el camino y compartir sus historias. Si no es así, esperemos que no tomes todo un año para que esta posibilidad sea considerada nuevamente. Jesús está vivo y esperando acercarse más a ti. Que esta temporada de Pascua los encuentre a ti y a Nuestro Señor conociéndose de una manera completamente nueva. ¡Felices Pascuas!

Confessing Sins

Question: If I go to the Sacrament of Penance and end up repeating the same sins, does that mean I do not have a strong enough intention to amend my life?

Answer: There is a popular expression that says, "Be patient. God isn't finished with me yet!" Growing in faith and holiness is an ongoing, life-long project, and our struggle with sin is at the heart of it. As St. Paul says, the good he intends to do, he does not do. The evil he does not intend, he does! It is not always a lack of intention, but more often the allure of evil that makes it difficult to change. When we confess our sins, we are to come with a fully contrite heart. You need to reflect on your true feelings toward your actions before approaching the sacrament. After confession, there are strategies you can make to avoid falling into the same traps of sin. First, pray for and seek out strength and perseverance through multiple sacraments, charitable work, and personal sacrifice. Second, avoid occasions of sin when you might fail or be sorely tempted. In doing these things, remind yourself daily that it is a spiritual war we wage, and with God's grace, we will succeed.

For many years the Adorno Fathers (Order of Clerics Regular Minor), in Ramsey have sponsored a PURGATORIAL SOCIETY UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF ST. MICHAEL, THE ARCHANGEL. Membership in the St. Michael's Pious Union brings a host of spiritual benefits to the souls who are enrolled.

- One Mass celebrated each weekday for the Happy Repose of all those enrolled;
- Four additional Masses throughout the year on Christmas, Easter, St. Michael's Feast (September 29th), and All Souls Day;
- Additional remembrances in the spiritual work of the Adorno Fathers, such as Divine Office and the prayers of our seminarians throughout the world.

The use of the St. Michael's Pious Union Mass cards can be both a convenient and fitting way to help you express your sentiments to friends and relatives when the occasion arises, as well as an appropriate way of supporting the work of the Adorno Fathers.

You can continue to obtain Mass cards as you have in the past, we can mail them to you if you are interested in becoming a promoter. We can also mail one for you anywhere in the United States. The suggested donation is $15 + postage.

Please, contact us at St. Michael's House of Studies by mail or phone (201-327-7375), and let us know how we can serve you best.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Peter's speech about the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus offers us a glimpse into the Church's earliest kerygma (oral proclamation) about Jesus. How is Peter's speech persuasive to you?

Second Reading:

Using the metaphors of yeast and unleavened bread, Paul viewed the death and resurrection of Jesus as bringing a new life of "sincerity and truth" to the community of believers. How does the celebration of Easter unite your faith community?

Gospel Reading:

Mary Magdalene is the first to realize that Jesus had risen from dead, and twice is told, "Do not be afraid." What fears are alleviated in you knowing that Jesus rose from the dead?
