LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA (Everyday Stewardship)

Testigos de Jesús

Esta travesía de fe no siempre es fácil. A veces, las heridas más grandes son las que sufrimos cuando los miembros de la familia y amigos se alejan de Dios y nos dejan atrás. La fe que tenían cuando eran más jóvenes ahora es tensa, o ven que el diario caminar con Jesús es demasiado difícil. Para ellos, Jesús se convierte en lo que Pedro escribió cuando describió a Jesús como la piedra que hace tropezar a las personas y la roca que los hace caer. Nuestro viaje es bastante difícil, pero ver a un ser querido tropezar y caer es desgarrador.

¿Qué debemos hacer en tal situación? Lo más importante, orar. Debemos darnos cuenta de que Dios es más poderoso que nosotros, e incluso si no podemos hacer que vean la verdad, Él si puede. Luego, somos testigos del poder transformador de Jesús por nuestras propias vidas. Necesitamos servirle en palabras y hechos. Deberíamos dejar que el gozo de ser un discípulo ilumine nuestros rostros. Permite que Jesús trabaje a través de nosotros para que otros se sientan atraídos por él. Por último, nunca debemos perder la esperanza. Muchos han caminado largos viajes solos únicamente para encontrar a Dios mas adelante en el camino. ¿Qué se necesitará para atraer a alguien a Cristo? Puede ser una acción, una palabra o una emoción. Nunca sabemos cómo ciertas personas serán tocadas. Esos seres queridos son un regalo de Dios en tu vida. Colócalos de nuevo en las manos de Dios y deja que Él los levante si han tropezado y caído. —Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

The word of God continued to spread, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly. (Acts 6:7a)

PSALM

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you. (Ps 33) or Alleluia

SECOND READING

You are “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises” of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. (1 Pt 2:9)

GOSPEL

Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” (Jn 14:6)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

GOSPEL MEDITATION Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When earthly lives end, especially when the person is younger, we tend to focus upon and consider what was lost. We think of lost opportunities — things they won't be able to see, babies they won't be able to cradle, and adventures that now must go undiscovered. Our minds create this chasm between earth and heaven that sees the losses of this life as permanent ones, never possible to achieve again. This perception causes many folks to remain stuck in their grief as they ponder all of the missed opportunities and regrets.

This is not resurrection thinking. All of the love that we can give and receive, the joy and elation that can be experienced, the adventures that can be undertaken, and the possibilities to be discovered are all part of a continuous journey. They are not ends in and of themselves but are all part of the unfolding of a relationship we have with God, who not only makes all of these wonderful things possible now but sustains them and fulfills them into eternity. The perception and experience of loss is really an illusion, because in God's eternal kingdom and in God's time, nothing is ever lost. Even the most intimate and tender of moments we can conceive of sharing with another human being are only part of a journey toward perfect intimate and tender moments to be shared with God in our resurrected life. We become like God and see God as He is in eternity. What greater joy, love, and hope can ever be discovered as we walk down our often dimly lit paths in this world.

This is an awesome wonder and magnificent news to behold. Call to mind someone you have lost in death. How do you see them now? How do you see yourself in heaven? Remind yourself, again, that God is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Our happiness is not going to be fully realized in this world, and there is nothing we can find here that cannot be found one hundred fold in eternity. It's all about relationship, and not solely about the relationships we have with each other, ourselves, and the world in which we live. It's about our relationship with God. If we realize how special that one relationship really is, then there is only one particular of heaven and life eternal that really matters: namely, that we fall into love eternal and discover truth. For when we finally close our eyes in death, then all will be well as long as we are with God. There are no losses, only gains.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What do you imagine the resurrected life of heaven to be like? When we try to get our minds around such an enormous concept, we can easily find ourselves at a loss. For some folks, the enormity of the question actually causes them to ignore the reality of heaven or even conclude that it does not exist. Jesus knew that the magnitude and grandeur of eternal life are really too much for us to grasp. He kept it simple and described it in terms of relationship. The disciples treasured their relationship with Jesus, and he assured them, "Where I am you also may be." Ultimately, that was enough for them to know. They would be with him. Strengthen your relationship with God as He is the way, the truth, and the life. Is the assurance that you will be with Him enough for you as well?

WITNESSES FOR JESUS

This journey of faith is not always easy. Sometimes the greatest wounds are those we suffer when family members and friends wander away from God and leave us behind. The faith they had when they were younger is now strained, or they see the daily walking with Jesus to be too difficult. For them, Jesus becomes what Peter wrote about when he described Jesus as the stone that causes people to stumble and the rock that makes them fall. Our journey is hard enough, but watching a loved one stumble and fall is heart-breaking.

What are we to do in such a situation? Most importantly, we pray. We must realize that God is more powerful than us, and even if we can't make them see the truth, He can. Then we witness to the transformative power of Jesus by our own lives. We need to serve him in word and deed. We should let a joy of being a disciple enlighten our faces. Allow Jesus to work through us so that others may be drawn to him. Lastly, we must never lose hope. Many have walked long journeys alone only to find God far down the road. What will it take to bring someone to Christ? It might be an action, a word, or an emotion. We never know how certain people will be touched. That loved one is a gift from God in your life. Place them back in God's hands, and let Him pick them up if they have stumbled and fallen.
