Words of Gratitude and Invitations

From the clergy and staff of our beautiful Church of Saint Anne and Saint Jude, I greet you all a wonderful day. I hope that all of you are doing great with your family. It has been an awesome eleven months being with you in this Church as a transitional deacon. I would like to express my sincerest gratitude for the warmest and wholehearted welcome you have given me. Thank you for all the knowledge and lessons in life you have taught me. Most of all I am grateful for letting me experience your deep spirit of compassion, love, and service as a community. I have witnessed your great love and devotion to our Lord Jesus, especially to the Holy Eucharist, and the faith that we shared every day as brothers and sisters in Christ. I pray that you will keep spreading your devotion and love for God so that more souls may come closer to Christ and grow in the knowledge of His love and compassion to inherit the kingdom promised to each one of us.

My sincere gratitude also to my own religious brothers in the community especially Father Gio Nuñez, CRM, our Superior and Pastor, Father Rufino, CRM, our former Parochial Vicar and for all of you beloved lay faithful of Sumter who helped me to deeply experience and practice the necessary training in the Ministry and to do them very well as I prepare myself for the priesthood. You all were always there to help and remind me to faithfully do my prayers, my liturgical duties, and the sacraments especially preaching the word of God during Holy Masses. These enable me to also experience the richness of administering, even in this trying time, the sacraments even to a few people. I humbly ask you to keep praying for me and all the religious of the Adorno Fathers. Rest assured of our prayers for you as well. Your intentions are daily being lifted and remembered on the altar of sacrifice as we celebrate the Holy Eucharist.

At this moment, I would like to personally invite you to bless me with your presence as I am ordained to the Sacred Order of Priests. It will be on the 10th of December, Thursday at 6:00 in the evening at Saint Joseph's Roman Catholic Church in Lodi New Jersey.

I am very much excited right now to celebrate my thanksgiving mass with you here sooner and humbly ask you to join me in thanking our dear Jesus for the precious gift of my vocation on that special moment and ask for the grace that I might always conform myself in Jesus likeness, specially today we are all reminded of the real happiness and blessedness which is to be more and more like Jesus every single day of my life and your life also and may our beloved Saints be always an inspiration and example to us to strive to be holy also in our own simple ways.

Thank you so much once again and may the Blessed Mother Mary and Saint Francis Caracciolo guide you always. May Jesus our Lord, come down and accompany you always through the gifts of the Holy Spirit. God bless you all!

Deacon Ronie

IN OUR MIDST

One day my son came downstairs in our house and went into the kitchen to get himself a bowl of cereal. He had no idea I was in the front room quietly reading something on my smartphone. He poured his milk and reached to grab a spoon. At that moment, I simply said, "Hello." Startled, he jumped back from the silverware drawer and let out a scream. He would tell this story differently, but it certainly was a scream. He clutched his chest as if he had just seen a ghost. All I wanted to do was say hello.

We have all been startled by someone when we thought we were all alone. Sometimes that person in our midst was simply quiet and hidden from our view. Other times, we simply have our head and mind in the clouds to the point we are ignoring the fact we are not alone.

At times that person we don't see is Jesus. He might seem quieter some days, but he should never be hidden from our view. He is always there with us, in others, and sharing our everyday moments. When we fail to see him in our midst, it is easy to act in ways we wouldn't if we saw him directly in front of us. We become less giving and more self-centered. No one wants to be surprised one day when suddenly they realize they were not alone, especially if the one who startles us is our God.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do you consider yourself spiritually mature and awake? We can become a little presumptuous in the Christian life and even put a little too much stock in God's mercy. We foolishly believe that in the end, God is going to give everyone a passing grade and all will be well. Therefore, until that time comes, I can remain mediocre in my faith disciplines and put aside the effort needed to go from okay to excellent. We can be accomplished procrastinators! The meeting of God face-to-face either when we die or when Christ comes again, whichever comes first, is not going to be as casual as we may think. There is no earthly meeting in our experience that can even compare to what it will be like to meet God. To say that we are going to be caught up in awe is an understatement. But, there is something even more significant than that to consider: If we haven't learned how to be attentive, recognize, and long for the holy of holies in this life, what make us think we are going to recognize and desire it in the next? Pray for the wisdom to act prudently.
