Have you heard about Holy Angels Academy?

Offering a Fresh Approach, Holy Angels Academy have opened their doors for in-person classes to all students and parents who are looking for a safe and inclusive environment for their family.

Check out our website at:

www.sumterholyanimals.com

AmazonSmiles is up and running and it does not cost you anything. Set-up is simple,

- go to Smile.Amazon.com
- enter your userid and password from your current Amazon account or set up a new account.
- Choose Holy Angels Academy as your charity then shop away!!!

We will earn $0.05% for every qualifying purchase. Again, this does not cost you anything. It is a way that Amazon helps us help ourselves. Please make sure you are on AmazonSmiles each and every time you make a purchase. If you shop on a mobile device, you will need to download and use the AmazonSmiles app.

Another opportunity to help our school is through the Cans for Kids project. All you need to do is collect all your aluminum products (i.e. cans, foil, pie plates, pans and cookie tins etc.). Put them into a garbage bag and toss them over the Cans for Kids enclosure at the school. Its easy, does not cost you anything and helps the school and our environment.

CARDINAL NEWMAN CATHOLIC SCHOOL

The general dispensation from attending Mass will end effective June 5, at the Vigil Mass for the Feast of Corpus Christi.

- 1 Lifting the general dispensation from the Sunday obligation and replace it with targeted dispensations for those at high risk of grave illness. These targeted dispensations can be found here: charlestondiocese.org/returning-to-the-table/returning-faqs
- 2 Beginning the Vigil of Corpus Christi, we continue to recommend the wearing of masks but those who have been fully vaccinated are no longer required to do so by the Centers for Disease Control. If you are not comfortable, you may continue the wearing of masks.
- 3 The Diocese strongly recommending that everyone eligible to receive a vaccination as soon as possible and stress that it is not sinful in any way to receive any of the three COVID-19 vaccines. You can find more information about reopening our churches at www.charlestondiocese.org/returning-to-the-table.

Thank you for your continued patience and generous support to our Church specially during these trying times. As the dispensation ends and we are slowly reverting to normal, may you and your family as well be restored and nourished by returning to the Sacrament of the Eucharist, the source and summit of our sanctification and Christian living. May God bless you! Mass is still live-streamed on Facebook 8am English Mass and 12:30 PM Spanish Mass : <https://www.facebook.com/sasjsumter/>

Dispensation from Mass lifted in SC

In May of 2020, due to the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, all Roman Catholics throughout the Diocese of Charleston were dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation.

However, with the decrease of cases in South Carolina, the widespread availability of vaccines, and following the guidance of public health officials, we are now able to safely accommodate more parishioners for Masses.

Therefore, effective June 5, the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass is hereby lifted for all parishes.

OUR NEW CHURCH

WHY ARE SOME SAINTS HONORED AS “PATRON SAINTS”?

Each person is unique and each of us has different gifts, interests, talents, and, yes, even struggles and areas where we need to grow. This is no less true of those holy women, men, and children who have been canonized or beatified.

Because we believe that the saints and blessed are both models of faith and intercessors, Christians have looked to certain holy people as role models and heavenly protectors for occupations, spiritual charisms, and even places. Although the Church sometimes names a person as a patron saint (e.g. Saint Philip Neri as the patron of Rome, Saint Clare of Assisi as the patroness of television, or Saint Aloysius Gonzaga as the patron of youth and young adults), more often it is popular devotion that inspires lay Christians to turn to a particular saint or blessed for heavenly help and support. This is how, for example, Saint Cecilia came to be honored as the patroness of musicians, Saint Toribio Romo as patron of migrants coming into the United States, and Saint Gertrude of Nivelles as patroness of cat lovers. Although there are official and unofficial lists of patron saints, we should always feel free to ask any and all the saints to give us their patronage and protection in whatever it is that we need.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments We Can Prepare the Upper Room

We all know that person, don't we? Hey, maybe we've even been that person.

"I have a great relationship with God, but I don't go to church regularly. God and I are on good terms. I can talk to Him just fine on my own."

There isn't anything false in these statements. It's important to have an intimate, even conversational prayer relationship with God. But the problem with this attitude is that it implies that churches don't matter. Community worship doesn't matter. Today, we are reminded exactly why that is so untrue. Why we need our parishes, our priests, and each other.

The Body and Blood of Christ — that's what it's all about. If it's not about that, it's not about anything. If we don't have the Eucharist, we're just like the ancient priests, making sacrifices that don't have the power to redeem anybody.

Where do we receive the Body and Blood of Christ? For most of us, it's in our parishes. The altar of sacrifice is also the table we gather in front of, as a family, to become one with Christ in the truest and realest way possible, recreating the scene in the Upper Room over and over again every time Mass is celebrated.

The disciples were commissioned by Christ to prepare the Upper Room for the Last Supper. How can we take up that work ourselves? How can we strengthen the bonds in our spiritual family? How can we serve our parish, always remembering that the table is not meant to be set only for two?

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

As we gather today to reaffirm our faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, we are reminded that we are also the Body of Christ. The mission of the Gospel calls us to be Christ for others. There is so much brokenness and pain in our world. Many people are lost and feeling lonely, marginalized and oppressed, victimized and abused. Every time we receive the Body (and Blood) of Christ, we are asked to become what we eat. Are we willing to step aside from our preoccupations and concerns so that we can be Christ for others? The power and presence of Christ in the Eucharist becomes present in us. In receiving this transforming presence of Christ, we can truly effect change in the lives of those we meet. We can show them God's unconditional, ever-present love and the beauty that can come from loving others. We are given the grace to become temples of justice and peace, carrying God's sacred Presence within us wherever we go.

A Message From Father Gio

Our parish is dependent upon the weekly offertory collection to continue it's ministry, it's ability to maintain our staff and to pay bills.

The parish Would be most grateful for your continued financial support.

If you are able, you may drop your weekly offertory in the basket by the door, mail in your weekly offertory checks to the parish, drop them off in the mailbox at the parish office, or transition to online giving using the link on our parish website

<https://www.osvonlinegiving.com/>

Thank you for your generosity and your continued support to our parish.
