GIVE IT ALL BACK

Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what's owed. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This worldview tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings. Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity — on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery.

But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent, all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head. For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive?

Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls.

Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger. What is justice in the Biblical sense?

The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs?

Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it — that's robbery. Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you — that's justice.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

A Message From Father Gio

Our parish is dependent upon the weekly offertory collection to continue it's ministry, it's ability to maintain our staff and to pay bills. The parish Would be most grateful for your continued financial support. If you are able, you may drop your weekly offertory in the basket during mass, mail in your weekly offertory checks to the parish, or transition to online giving using the link on Our parish website

<https://www.osvonlinegiving.com/>

Thank you for your generosity and your continued support to our parish!

The Diocese of Charleston Policy on Sacramental Preparation

The expectation of Saint Anne and Saint Jude Roman Catholic Church is that upon entering a Sacramental program, the youth would have attended a Religious Education program for at least one full year prior. Once entered into a Sacramental program, it is the expectation that the youth will attend classes and retreats faithfully. If you know your child is going to be absent on a scheduled class day, please notify the teacher, or Dir of Faith Formation. All contact information is available on the cover of the bulletin OR on the website.

Política de la Diócesis de Charleston sobre la preparación Sacramental La expectativa de la Oficina de Formación de la Fe de la Iglesia de Sta. Ana y San Judas es que, al entrar a un Programa Sacramental, el joven haya asistido previamente al programa de Educación Religiosa por lo menos por un año completo (de acuerdo al registro de asistencia). Una vez ingresado al programa de Preparación Sacramental se requiere que el joven asista a todas las clases y retiros, participando fielmente. Si por alguna razón tu hijo hubiera que faltar algún domingo, favor de avisar al maestro.

Handel's Great Oratorio: Messiah

The life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ is the source of this well-known musical work. But did you know it was not written as sacred music, but as entertainment? Find out more by joining us. We meet in the Adult Ed room at St. Anne after the 8:00 AM Mass on Sundays. Coffee and donuts are available. For more information, contact Charley Francis at 803-469-4584 or cfrancis@ftc-i.net.

Catholic Sewing Group

The Catholic Ladies of Sumter sewing group consists of ladies who like to be involved in making things for people in nursing homes or hospitals, the military or the homeless and the parish. You do not have to know how to sew. If you can sort fabric, match colors, cut, iron cut pin or visit, you are more than welcome to join us, and if you would like, we can teach you! The more hands, the more we can accomplish. Our quilts are our biggest projects, but we also knit and crochet lap quilts, hats and scarves for the coat sale. We made bibs for baptism and stoles for confirmation. We meet on Mondays at noon. We look forward to having you join us call Joan Mudd, president, Ladies Guild, 803-236-9649 or Mary Weir, Ladies Sewing Group, 803-316-8459

MASS INTENTIONS FOR THE WEEK AUGUST 28TH THROUGH SEPTEMBER 5TH

FIRST READING

As Moses prepared the Israelites to settle and live in the Promised Land he urged them to stay close to God's commandments and statutes in order to become a "great nation." Why do you think so many nations stray from this idea?

SECOND READING

In the opening verses of his letter, James urges his readers to be "doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves." Why do you think this is wise advice?

GOSPEL READING

In returning to the Gospel of Mark, we hear today how the religious leaders from Jerusalem questioned Jesus about keeping "the tradition of the elders." Jesus responded with the importance of being clean of heart. Why is this such a challenging spiritual exercise?

Do you like to have fun?!
The Holy Bowler League is having an organizational meeting September 1, 2021 at 6:30 pm in the Adult Ed Room at the St. Anne location. If you have bowled for year or if you have never bowled before all are welcome (it is a fun league). For more info contact Bill Eaker (803) 340-0927

OUR NEW CHURCH

- Projected monies available for our building project is 4.45 million dollars (soft costs estimated at .6 million), 3.85 million net for site work and building. OFOF D&L 48720 3.24 million cash It's TIME 1.21 million pledges Total monies 4.45 million cash and pledges.
- We have worked with the value engineers at Mashburn Construction to get our building project within budget. We plan to reduce the size of our new church from 16000 sq feet (800 seats) to 10,000 sq feet (400 seats), and, as before, we plan to build a cross shaped church with red brick.
- We are hoping to form an artifact subcommittee in order to catalogue artifacts from St Annes and St Judes Church, then determine which artifacts will be used in our new church, the timing of moving and placement of artifacts.
- We had a positive BRAC presentation earlier this month and plan a follow up presentation in October after engineering documents have been completed.
- We have applied for a loan from the Diocese for 1.2 million, based on our outstanding pledges only. Pending BRAC and Loan approval, we plan to have a "shovel in the ground" in January 2022 and worship in our new church by Christmas 2022.
