Another opportunity to help our school is through the Cans for Kids project. All you need to do is collect all your aluminum cans. Put them into a garbage bag and toss them over the Cans for Kids enclosure at the school. Its easy, does not cost you anything and helps the school and our environment.

Our Commitment To A Safe Environment

As Christian adults, we have a moral and legal responsibility and are entrusted by God with the spiritual, emotional and physical well being of minors and vulnerable adults as they participate in activities within or sponsored by our Diocese. It is our responsibility and commitment to provide an environment which is safe and nurturing.

In order to achieve this, the diocese has a Safe Environment Program that implements training, screening, background checks and other procedures that are designed to reduce the risk of sexual abuse of children and vulnerable adults. Every parish, school and Diocesan agency has the program and each is responsible for program implementation and continuation.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?

I think we've all been guilty of looking at a situation and wondering what's in it for us. It doesn't matter if it's a particular work assignment, someone at the parish asking for help with the mission trip bake sale, or your spouse asking if you'll take over the grocery shopping this week. Often, our first reaction to one of these requests is a heavy sigh and the thought: "If I do this, what will I get?"

Sometimes it surprises us to realize that the Apostles were no different. We tend to idolize these contemporaries of Christ as giants who walked with the Savior. But in reality, these individuals were merely human beings struggling to commit to the task of everyday stewardship.

In the Gospels, we see glimpses of them longing for praise and affirmation. We see them jockeying for positions of power within the group of twelve. We see them expect earthly rewards like honor and admiration. We see them acting a lot like us.

But in the end, we see them transformed by the grace of God. Like all the saints, their holiness stems from their commitment to their call. They stumble through, and as they stumble, they keep trusting God. They keep turning to Him. They keep asking for help. They don't give up just because they keep failing at it.

We are defined by what we give when we have no hope of being reimbursed, rewarded, or recognized. The Apostles understood this, eventually, and they gave accordingly. Most of them gave their very lives.

Remember, they're just like us. If they can do it, we can too.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

It's the positions of power and great authority that people often admire. We equate success with six figure incomes, high positions, management, and influence. We even go above and beyond to find favor with our bosses so that we can get a little extra recognition and maybe the next promotion when it comes up. This is the way of the world. Those who have their values set on earthly things are going to work by earthly rules. We forget that it doesn't work that way in the Kingdom of God. Success is measured not from the place of status, influence, or prestige but from the place of humility, service, and sacrifice. The authority that one hopes to achieve is not an authority over others but an authority that comes from wisdom and developing one's relationship with God. Jesus flips the tables on our priorities. Even the first disciples had a tough time understanding this. They really thought that they would somehow receive a privilege or bonus from being faithful. We often operate under that same illusion.

Thank you to everyone who participated in and helped to throw this years

Our Vision

- ◆ United in Faith.
- ◆ Strengthened by Hope.
- ◆ Active in Charity.

The Pastoral Plan is a tool to assist the Pastor in effective shepherding of St. Anne and St. Jude. The plan includes our Core Values along with objectives and goals, and concrete steps to achieve those objectives and goals. Each Ministry supported by our church is included in the plan along with how those ministries operate to support the Pastoral Plan and the established Core Values, objectives, and goals. The Pastoral Plan is a living document and a call to immediate action, as such, The Pastoral Plan committee has identified Low-Hanging Fruit which we have already started pursuing and do so in the near term. We will continue to look out for low hanging fruit.

- We have worked with the value engineers at Mashburn Construction to get our building project within budget. We plan to reduce the size of our new church from 16000 sq feet (800 seats) to 10,000 sq feet (400 seats), and, as before, we plan to build a cross shaped church with red brick.
- We are hoping to form an artifact subcommittee in order to catalogue artifacts from St Annes and St Judes Church, then determine which artifacts will be used in our new church, the timing of moving and placement of artifacts.
- We had a positive BRAC presentation earlier this month and plan a follow up presentation in October after engineering documents have been completed.
- We have applied for a loan from the Diocese for 1.2 million, based on our outstanding pledges only. Pending BRAC and Loan approval, we plan to have a "shovel in the ground" in January 2022 and worship in our new church by Christmas 2022.
